MIGRATION, WORK AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Chair: PhD, Project manager Anu Yijälä, City of Helsinki, FI

Most European countries have faced a major upheaval through migration. Migration has been one of the many ways of either finding new work and/or leaving a “bad” labour market. For those migrating, work can be one way to integrate into a society and culture. This stream will examine how migration and work relate to each other in many differing ways: the effects on the work force, inter-cultural issues in work ethos, labour unions and migration are but a few of the themes that may be examined in this stream.

The stream especially welcomes papers that relate to the themes described above. If you wish to propose a session within the stream, that is, 3-4 papers tied together with specific focus or theme, the organizers will try to accommodate them in the programme.
